Confirmation

Mitsue Hemmi, Keiichiro Hemmi, and Yusuke Hemmi (hereafter referred to as the coinheritors), in the matter of and in connection with the hereunder-identified invention (hereafter referred to as the employee's invention) which late Keiji Hemmi (who died on June the 7th, 1995 and whose legal residence was at 668-37, Ohaza Shimohirooka, Tsukuba-shi, Ibaraki; hereafter referred to as the inherited) made in the course of performing his duties around March 1995, in the research laboratories of Fujisawa Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. (the head office located at 4-7, Doshomachi 3-chome, Chuo-ku, Osaka-shi; hereafter referred to as Fujisawa) by which he had been employed,

CONFIRM

1. That the right to obtain patent, in Japan and abroad, with respect to the employee's invention, had been assigned to Fujisawa by the inherited while he was alive under the provisions concerning employee's inventions (Article 6-(4) of the Work Regulations of Fujisawa);
2. That whereas Fujisawa needs a written assignment of the employee's invention for the procedure required for an application for patent in Japan and/or abroad, the inherited died before he would have signed or written down his name and sealed it;
3. That, therefore, the coinheritors sign/write down their names and seal them, on behalf of the inherited, on the document required for said application for patent in Japan and/or abroad.
